

K-Love provides a positive and encouraging message in the music that they provide. By serving the City of Chesapeake, this community is part of K-Love's on going prayer chain. There is no other station in this area that provides easy listening christian music commercial free and is publicly supported.